No Beginning

In the Beginning –

there

was no

Beginning

Something

was already

there.

It was not the Beginning

but the continuation of a pre-existence

“Big Bang”

does not

compute

The sums run to infinity -

a mathematical term for

“I don’t know!”

But our universe,

now huge,

was

once

small;

A window about to open;

A bud about to burst;

A seed about to germinate.

But –

It was not the Beginning.

Before that seed moment there was an Energy

an Intention

a Will to Be

Let’s call it

“I AM.”
